

Staying Safe Together

Welcome...

Get Prepared

Arrange with your host to meet at the main visitor entrance and they will get you checked in and equip you with the proper safety equipment. Visiting for more than a tour? Additional safety training may be needed to assure a safe visit. Check with your host.

Let us Know How We Can Serve You

Need Wi-Fi access, a bottle of water, or a restaurant recommendation? We're happy to help! Please let your host know if you have items you need transported into production areas or if you require assistance due to special considerations.

Thank You for Your Visit

Before you leave, please sign out at the visitor entrance and turn in your visitor badge. Thank you for your visit. Please come again!

Advanced Visitor

When you spend more time with us, you become an integral part of our operational team and safety programs. We will watch out for each other, we will carefully follow our plans, and everyone can go home safe every day.

Are you an advanced visitor?

- Vendor
- Contractor
- Subcontractor
- Customer Audit Teams
- Any person who is not part of our production team, but is on site to complete a task

The Safety Department may have additional safety training you will need to complete. Contact your host for additional information. Thanks for helping us make safety a priority.

MUSTER SIGNS

During a drill or a real evacuation emergency, muster areas are located outside the building. Our coworkers can help you find your way.
